

SF/SM CURSILLO

2018 LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

“WE ARE CALLED”

The workshop opens your eyes to how you might help spread the Good News!

For rookies new to the Movement, or veterans looking for the latest and greatest, and those hearing the whispers or loud bellows to Lead a team - you are the Leadership of our Movement and we are here to support you and your journey!

Friday-Sunday, February 23 - 25
Holy Redeemer Retreat Center (HRRC), Oakland CA
(Servant Team Coordinator, Kevin Kain; Assistant, Vicki Cummins)

At the Leadership Workshop you can expect to learn about:

- planning the weekend
- team roles - what does a MOSSAF really do? Can I be a Head Cook?
- handling the budget
- recruiting new team members
- writing and Rollos and Meditations

We'll also share in good fellowship,
MUSIC, laughter, faith and food!

And did we mention it's a co-ed weekend that you can attend more than once?

The subsidized fee to participants is $100/person, with partial scholarships still available. Fee includes two nights shared lodging, meals and program materials.

*The SF/SM Secretariat has agreed to subsidize this discounted rate, however anyone in our community who can afford the actual cost of $150/person is welcome to contribute the full cost or any additional palanca donation for the benefit of those with financial hardships wanting to participate in the workshop.

Visit the www.cantaelgallo.com site and select the link for Leadership Workshop for details on registration for this year's event. Bring a fellow Cursillista, rookie or veteran, it'll be fun!
Reservations & deposit due by January 30, 2018.
